

Denny Carleton

Contemporary Music Leader

Denny Carleton is a longstanding figure in the Cleveland music scene, having played throughout high school with the Lost Souls and also with notable bands such as The Choir (“It’s Cold Outside”). In addition to being a gifted guitarist, Denny is also a talented vocalist and prolific songwriter who has published a myriad of compositions. Denny enjoys performing his original music in clubs and churches around Northeastern Ohio. He is also a wonderful teacher of guitar, piano, ukulele, songwriting, and music theory. Denny joined First Presbyterian Church as Contemporary Worship Leader in 2010.
