

Lisa Hillegass

Fellowship and Education Director

Lisa Hillegass was born and raised in Willoughby, Ohio, where she has enjoyed a lifelong involvement with the First Presbyterian Church of Willoughby. Areas of church participation have included membership on a variety of committees and Elder. She and her family have spent several years volunteering in a variety of capacities in the church and the community. Lisa enjoys exploring nature, attending music events and giraffes. She cherishes all of the wonderful memories and times with the church community.